STATE OF MISSOURI, ss.
COUNTY OF HOLT, ss.
In the Circuit Court, August Term, 1912.

Mettie M. Payne, Plaintiff,
vs.
The unknown heirs, consorts, devisees, donees, aliases and immediate, mesne, remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of James L. Reynolds, deceased, Defendants.

You are hereby notified that the above named plaintiff has this day filed with the undersigned clerk of the circuit court of Holt County, Missouri, in vacation, her petition duly verified by affidavit, wherein said plaintiff alleges that the defendants claim some title, estate or interest in the subject matter of said petition and in the land hereinafter described, but that said plaintiff cannot insert the names of said defendants in her said petition because the names of the said defendants are unknown to her; in which said petition plaintiff further avers that the defendants have obtained and derive their claim to the property hereinafter described from one James L. Reynolds, deceased, as heirs, consorts, devisees, donees, aliases or immediate, mesne, remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of said James L. Reynolds; and that said petition contains a recital and description of the claims of said defendants and how said claims are derived as the same are known to plaintiff.

It is therefore ordered by the undersigned clerk of said court in vacation, that said defendants be notified that an action has been commenced against them in this court, for the purpose of trying, determining, settling, defining and quieting the title to the following described land in plaintiff's petition described, situate in said state and county, viz:

"Commencing at a point thirty (30) feet East of the southwest corner of Lot Seven (7) in Block Seven (7), as designated on the recorded plat of the City of Oregon, Holt County, Missouri; thence East thirty-four and one-half (34 1/2) feet; thence North to the alley; thence West thirty-four and one-half (34 1/2) feet; thence South to the commencing."

That plaintiff seeks to obtain a decree forever barring and precluding the said defendants and each and every of them, from ever claiming or asserting any right, title or interest in or to said land or any part thereof; that said action is returnable and triable at the first day of the next regular term of this court, to be begun and held at the court house in the City of Oregon, in said county on the 26th day of August, 1912, at which time and place you, the said defendants, are commanded to be and appear, and plead to the said petition, otherwise the allegations of said petition will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered accordingly, and as prayed.

And now at the request of the attorney for plaintiff, it is ordered that a copy of this order be published in THE HOLT COUNTY SENTINEL, it being a weekly newspaper, printed, published and of general circulation in said county and state, once a week for four consecutive weeks, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days prior to August 26, 1912.

America's Greatest Weekly THE Toledo Blade TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States

Circulation 200,000

Popular in Every State

No Whiskey Advertising

The seventy-sixth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period of its remarkable career. It is read each week by more than a million people. Its field is not circumscribed by State boundaries, but involves the length and breadth of the United States, giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper in the country.

The Toledo Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the bedside, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of The Blade are edited with painstaking care. The household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greatest number of readers; lovers of the Quaker in fiction are kept up to date; the farm topics are given the place of honor; the business section is a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade among the most valuable of the price of subscription—one dollar a year.

In the Circuit Court of Holt County, Missouri.

April Term, 1912.
Vincent S. Kelley, William S. Kelley, John A. Kelley and George W. Kelley, Plaintiffs, vs.

Now at this 24th day of April, 1912, comes the plaintiffs in the above entitled cause, by their attorney, and it appearing now to the satisfaction of the court from the proofs that all of the said defendants, John E. Fish, Franklin P. Fish, William Fish, Amanda Hughes, Florence Waddell, Mary Ryan, Augusta Jones, Adda Blake, Seymour Fish, Harry S. Fish, Charles Fish and Jennie Johnson are non-residents of the State of Missouri, and cannot be summoned in this action, it is ordered by the court that publication be made, notifying them that an action has been commenced against them in the Circuit Court of Holt County, Missouri, by the said plaintiffs, by petition for the partition of the following described real estate situate in Holt County, Missouri, and of which Thomas B. Fish died seized, to-wit:

The North half of the southeast quarter of Section Ten (10) and the West half of the northwest quarter of Section eleven (11), all in Township Sixty-two (62) of Range Thirty-eight (38). Also all of Blocks Twelve (12), Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) as designated on the recorded plat of the Town of Bigelow, Holt County, Missouri, and that unless you the said defendants be and appear at the next regular term of this court to be begun and holden at the court house in the City of Oregon, in said State and County, on Monday, the 26th day of August, next, 1912, and on or before the first day of said term, answer or plead to said petition, the same will be taken as confessed and judgment rendered according to the prayer of the petition.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in THE HOLT COUNTY SENTINEL, a weekly newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in the said county of Holt, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of this court.

Trustee's Sale.

WHEREAS, Nelson C. Field and R. W. Greenlee, by their Deed of Trust, dated the 1st day of April, 1902, and recorded in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Holt County, Missouri, April 14, 1902, in Book 93 at page 374 of the real estate records of said state and county, conveyed to Henry Shultz, Trustee, to secure the payment of the principal note of $300.00 therein described and payable on or before five years from the date thereof, the following described real estate in Holt County, Missouri, to-wit:

The Southwest quarter of Section Twenty-four (24), Township Sixty-one (61) of Range Thirty-nine (39); which Deed of Trust and note were given and executed to secure the unpaid balance of purchase money on the land therein described, and Whereas, it is provided in said Deed of Trust, that in case of the absence, death or refusal to act, or disability in any wise of the said trustee, the acting Sheriff of Holt County, Missouri, might at the request of the legal holder of said note execute said trust; and Whereas, said note and interest thereon is now in default and the owner of said note has requested me to execute the power vested in me by said Deed of Trust and sell said real estate and out of the proceeds of said sale pay the indebtedness secured thereby, together with the costs of executing the trust, notice is therefore given; that in compliance with said request and in pursuance to the power vested in me by said trust deed, I will sell said real estate at Public Vendue to the highest bidder for cash, on at the Court House Door in the City of Oregon, Holt County, Missouri, for cash to pay said debt, with interest and costs of this sale, and of this, all persons will take notice.
